

Renovation and replacement of approximately 9,000 L.F. of gravity sewer lines that are believed to be subject to high amounts of inflow and infiltration and that have reached the end of their useful life using open-cut replacement, pipe-busting replacement, cured-in-place pipe rehabilitation, open-cut point repairs, new manholes, and appurtenances.